The Park View Varsity Dragons, under the expert coaching of Harold Wise and outstanding leadership of tri-captains Mike Davis, Bill Ogburn and James Earl Moody, closed the season with an impressive 8-2 record. The shoulder injury of quarterback Nickie Cleaton, sustained just before the championship game, killed all hopes of finishing first in the district. However, the Dragon team, through teamwork and effort, still managed to bring home second place.

Dragon end Ben Taylor hauls in a 15-yard pass from Nickie Cleaton for Park View's first touchdown against Central. Looking on are Weldon Jones (86), Jimmy Martin (81), and Chippie Chappell (31).

Filled With Championship Moments

Moments before the beginning of a home game, the starting five are ready for action.

P.V.'s Larry Dix goes in for a lay-up to add 2 points to the Dragon's score against Brunswick.

Endless determination and teamwork were combined successfully to produce the mighty '68 Dragons. Starting with only one returning letterman, Bill Ogburn, the team lacked promise of success. As the season progressed and each team gained experience, Park View school spirit began to soar.

Each game during the season was fought hard and played well, but the year was highlighted by the Dragon's championship win over county rival Bluestone at Hampden-Sydney College, to take the Group II District III Title.

Hard Work and Determination

Dragons warm up for first game with their big rival Bluestone.

Scott Boswell and Ben Taylor (43) rebounding against Bluestone.

Big Dave goes high for a basket against Greenville.

Melvin Oakley drives in for two points against Cumberland.

Win Park View the Championship

The 1968 Dragons, coached by Mr. Leo Allen, graciously accepted the first district trophy in P.V.'s history after defeating Bluestone, the cross-county rival, in the District Championship contest at Hampden-Sydney College.

Ben Taylor, big sixth man on the team, shows the strength and style against Brunswick, used by Dragon players on their way to the championship.

A happy crowd lifts Coach Leo Allen to take down the net after the Dragons captured the district championship.

A happy and well deserving team of Champions—the 1968 Dragons, holders of Group II District III Title.

Dragons Carry Title to Charlottesville

There had to be a first time for Park View at Charlottesville and in their first performance at the U. Va. Coliseum, the Dragons represented District III well, with a score of 59-66. With this experience under their belts, the Park View team may look forward to many trips to Charlottesville in the future.

Bill Ogburn (22) battles the Kersey brothers of Matoaca for control of the ball.

With 7-3 Record

Park View had another successful baseball season as it compiled a 7-3 record with twin victories over Brunswick, Blackstone, and Greenville. Park View was well represented by placing Mike Walker, Bill Ogburn, and Hollis Estes on the All-District squad. The consistent defensive play of the Dragon nine, displayed throughout the year, enabled the Dragons to win many games, as Park View finished second in the Eastern Division.

With many returning lettermen, next year should be full of promise for Coach Crowder and his fighting Dragons.

All-District, Hollis Estes, comes thru with a vital hit against arch rival, Blackstone.

Athletes Are Remembered

Assistant Principal, Bryant Lumpkin, presents Senior, Bill Ogburn, the Robert Sterling Montgomery Trophy as the team member chosen most valuable by his teammates. Head football coach, Harold Wise, assists with the presentation.

Football Tri-Captain Bill Ogburn eats up yardage as Randolph-Henry opponents hit Park View defenders. Such scrappy performances made him the first choice for the Most Valuable Player Award.

Sophomore Nickie Cleaton and Senior Mike Walker, both chosen members of the All-District football team, go over game films in the coaches' office.

For Outstanding Performances

The trophy case and its newest addition is a popular attraction, and among the admirers are Coach Leo Allen, Bill Ogburn, and Nickie Cleaton. Bill, the captain of the Group II, District III Champions, won a berth on the All-District and All-Southern teams. Nickie gained distinction as the only Park View player on the All-Tournament Squad.

Sharp shooter Nickie Cleaton clears the board with a jump shot. Although getting a late start in the season, due to injury, Nickie managed a 14.3 point average and was high scorer in two of the three tournament games.

The girls' basketball team honors Kay Coleman, team captain, as their most valuable player. The award, along with the Girls' Athletic Medal, was presented to Kay by her coach, Mrs. Estelle Lumpkin.

Full of new ideas and cheers, the girls brought life and spirit to pep assemblies and the games. For the first time, the cheerleaders held a bonfire the night before the Greenville football game. Basketball season found the varsity cheerleaders supporting the team all the way to Charlottesville.

Mount Olympus Revisited

Mount Olympus was the scene for the Latin skit.

Second year Latin students comprise the Senior Latin Club. This club helps further the knowledge of Latin by developing an appreciation for Roman culture, and emphasizing its role in our civilization today. The club has guest speakers, as well as skits and films, which are informative and stimulating.

Climaxing the year's activities is the annual Latin banquet. At this time members of both clubs dress in Roman costumes, enjoy Latin skits, songs, and foods like those used at ancient Roman banquets.

Members of the Latin II Club are:

During Gala Latin Banquet

The Junior Latin Club, which is composed of first year Latin students, is designed to create an interest in ancient Roman civilization. Through films on Roman life, programs centered around mythology, and the singing of Latin songs the students become acquainted with Roman history and culture.

First year Latin students, Benny George, Ann Nichols, Janice Crews, Susie Bowers, and Laura Crews, were among these Latins enjoying the banquet.

The business staff is very important to any annual. This year ours is headed by Miss Abernathy, sponsor, who is checking subscriptions with Turner King, Linda Estes and Linda Thompson.

Co-Editor

Gutter - wind - bleed - crop - screen - duotone - copy - heading - miniature dummy - full color - reverse print - two page spread - margin - italics - layout - deadline - plate - end sheet - foreword - theme - ads - tip-in - proofed - the mastery of these terms and others is just the basis of understanding for the newcomer to an annual staff. By attending SIPA and DELMAR Workshops, members of the LEAVES OF MEMORY Staff have come to know the meanings of such terms and have begun to put them into use. Being a member of such a staff is certainly a progressive thing, for becoming a member is just the beginning.

Record 1968 in Pictures

Pat Hall and Weldon Jones take one of the first steps in planning an annual by using the blackboard to try their hand at layout.

The next step in annual production is the responsibility of Topper Watson who takes the needed photographs and crops them properly for use.

Lou Edwards and Peggy Harvell type the final copy on the master layout that eventually goes to Delmar.

Delegates Attend S. I. P. A. and Work Shop

After attending the Southern Interscholastic Press Association Convention in Lexington, Virginia, delegates Mary

Jane Paulette, Pat Hall, Linda Stone, and Susan Waters plan a workshop with sponsor, Miss Sue Martin.

Annual Subscriptions were taken care of by these representatives: SEATED: Peter Webb, Pat Taylor, Pat Ogburn, Joan Perkins, Wesley Dunn. FIRST ROW: STANDING: Lou Edwards, John Lacy, Pam Hall, Judy Pegram, Harriette Warren,

Kathy Lynn, Anne Coleman, Turner King. SECOND ROW: STANDING: Roslyn Tanner, Kay Coleman, Betty Smiley, Lynn Hines, Ronnie Bell, Larry Dix, Johnny Ogburn.

Staff Drives to Meet Deadlines

Linda Stone, associate editor, and Robert Valentine, feature editor work hard to capture the year's activities.

At the annual dance, Miss Betty Smiley was crowned Miss Yearbook for 1968.

Kay Coleman takes in candy sales as the annual staff raises money to supplement their budget.

The successful athletic season made the jobs of sports editors Ronnie Bell and Mary Jane Paulette challenging and interesting.

Hard Work

Linda Thompson and Randy Whittemore were recipients of the DAR Citizenship medals.

Kathy Lynn brought much happiness to herself and the school, by being selected a finalist for the National Merit Award.

Marsha Kennedy, Susan Puryear, Kathy Lynn, Butch Wright, and Randy Whittemore were seniors named to merit Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Rewarded

Kathryn Sue Brooks (right), a junior, was selected to attend the V.P.I. Science Program this summer. She and her science teacher, Leo Allen, look over the schedule for the six weeks course. Jackson Hudson (below), won the local Jaycees Road-E-O Contest. He is being presented the award by Mr. Jamie Barker. Jackson went on to win the state contest in Roanoke, Virginia.

Prom Depicts Moments

The girls find dancing much more fun and comfortable without shoes.

Weeks of planning... decorating... anticipating... and then... "After Six"—the 1968 Junior-Senior Prom. On May 10, 1968, the gym was beautifully decorated to represent a night club "After Six". As guests entered the gym, they became accustomed to the swinging music provided by "The Soul Masters". As the night was drawing to an end, everyone agreed that they would remember that night always.

Months of planning the Prom is climaxed by the actual decorating.

Decorations put up in a week's time are taken down in less than fifteen minutes.

"After Six"

Charles Gordon, Janice Crews, Randolph Hite, Jau Parker, Susan Hofelick, Steve Callis, Georgia Thompson, and Jim Hofler gather in the hall for a breath of fresh air.

"The Soul Masters" swing out in the night club setting.

Class sponsors and guests retreat to the cafeteria for refreshments and peace.

"Professor, How Could You!"

Backstage, makeup is applied before curtain time.

The Senior Class of Park View High presented a play entitled, "Professor, How Could You", on April 5, 1968, at 8:00 p.m. in the gymnasium. The play was directed by Mrs. Mildred Moseley, Mrs. Harriet Matthews, and Mrs. Pattie Wilson.

Leaves of Memory Staff Shares a Thought

"The Coach of Life"

Though often somewhat heavy-frighted,
The coach rolls at an easy pace;
And Time, the coachman, grizzly-pated,
But smart, alert—is in his place.

We board it lightly in the morning
And on our way at once proceed.
Repose and slothful comfort scorning,
We shout: "Hey, there! Get on! Full speed!"

Noon finds us done with reckless daring,
And shaken up. Now care's the rule.
Down hills, through gully roughly faring,
We sulk, and cry: "Hey, easy, fool!"

The coach rolls on, no pitfalls dodging.
Toward evening, more accustomed grown,
We drowse, while to the night's dark lodging
Old coachman Time drives on, drives on.

Editors' Letter

The Leaves of Memory for 1968 is different. It is a yearbook which has utilized the resources of Park View and the surrounding community to the fullest.

All things must change as the years go by and likewise, our yearbook had to make progress. Therefore, this yearbook has been done in the most modern way possible to meet the changing times. It is our hope that this book has been done in such a way as to satisfy the standards of this generation.

This yearbook is solely the product of the students of Park View, for like all yearbooks, it will become an index to the traditions, history, and way-of-life of a school. But it is different because it expresses Park View High School as only the students and faculty can express it. This is a yearbook of this generation. This is Park View for 1968.

As editors of the Leaves of Memory for 1968, we would like to express our deepest gratitude to all students who have sacrificed their time and energy to make this yearbook a success.

We are very grateful to Miss Virginia Abernathy, Miss Sue Martin, and Mrs. Carol Wade, our advisors, for their undying patience, hard work, and guidance which helped make this book a success.

We wish to thank Mr. Morris and the faculty for being so patient on days of class disruption.

Our gratitude goes to Mr. Frank Nanney, Jr., without whose photography this annual would have been greatly handicapped.

We would like to thank Mr. Max Ward, Mr. Paul Underwood, and Delmar Printing Company for their assistance throughout the year.

We also wish to thank the many business organizations and clubs that have sponsored our annual.

Finally, and most important, we would like to thank the entire Leaves of Memory Staff, whose sacrifices and willingness to work has made this yearbook.

Our work on this book has been a challenge, but one which we have thoroughly enjoyed. To the faculty and students of Park View,—“Thank You.”

Sincerely,

Kay and Ronnie
